

CAREERS NEWSLETTER

This newsletter is a collation of all the opportunities we have heard about from employers and universities. Please use the links included to read more information and apply to anything you are interested in. Links are underlined.

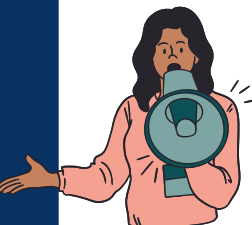

OPPORTUNITIES

Not Going to Uni have partnered with Sam Moinet from The Student Breakthrough to deliver a talk about feeling confident and ready for the exam season. It takes place on Thursday 11th May at 12pm. Sign up here.

You are invited by the Careers & Enterprise Company's Youth Advisory Group (YAG) to take part in this short 15-minute survey as part of a special project about youth friendly digital and social media content. You can take part here.

The Diana Award are building on our expertise in working with youth social activists to create a digital platform for the Centre for Social Action (CfSA). To further our mission, we are looking for young people between the ages of 16 and 25 to be part of our research and digital design development to ensure that we keep the needs and experiences of young people at the heart of our work throughout the project. Read more here.

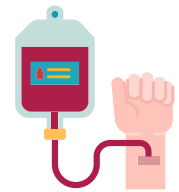

Want to know more about a job you might never have heard of pays a whopping £70k a year - and you don't even need to have a degree?! Check out this article.

A WARNING TO ALL YEAR 12 STUDENTS! Thinking of using ChatGPT for your university personal statement? Think again! The plagiarism detector used by most British universities has announced it will now be able to identify students using ChatGPT in their essays or coursework. Read more here.

JOB OF THE WEEK

Phlebotomists collect blood samples from patients, and send them off for analysis and testing. The annual salary is £18,005 to £24,157 and you can expect to work 40 to 42 hours a week. There will be 7.5% more Phlebotomist jobs in 2027.

Click here to read more.

LABOUR MARKET INFORMATION FACT

The poll of more than 4,000 13-16 year-olds has been released during National Careers Week.

77% of young people don't consider money to be the biggest motivator for choosing a career.

Read more here.

If you have any questions or need support, please email ajones@stjulies.org.uk

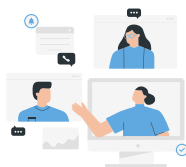

CAREERS NEWSLETTER

OPPORTUNITIES

Historic England is pleased to offer a virtual work experience programme for 16-18 year olds twice per year. The programme is designed to give delegates an insight into the wonderful careers available within heritage. The next one begins on Monday 3rd July. You can read more and book your place here.

Become part of the Salesforce Online Work Experience from July 31 - August 4, 2023. This student internship is your opportunity to gain exciting insights into everyday life at Salesforce! You can apply now up to and including May 20! You can read more and book your place here.

The Festival of Apprenticeships careers events are back this summer, you can attend to meet employers and training providers face to face. The events are taking place on:

- Midlands Event - Tuesday 27th June - Millennium Point (Birmingham)
- Greater London - Thursday 29th June - Oval Stadium
- North West - Tuesday 4th July - MMU Business School

Read more and book your place here.

Coding Black Females are delivering a new exciting part time bootcamp - Entry To Tech: Investment Banking for Black women who want to become software engineers. You'll train with Coding Black Females and UBS; you will receive guidance from experienced mentors, and you might be offered a job. Read more and apply here.

The Apprenticeship Academy is a 6 week programme that provides students in Year 11, 12 and 13 with everything they need to know to find, apply for and interview for apprenticeship opportunities in the UK. The next course starts on 14th June. Sign up here. You can read reviews from previous participants here.

Tech Juniors have now launched their brand new website! Check it out and subscribe to job alerts here. They currently have roles at the BBC, PrettyLittleThing and HypeBeast.

J.P. Morgan are running an Application Masterclass, you'll be part of a small group working directly with professionals to support you through the competitive application process for the J.P. Morgan Technology Summer School. Read more here.

EMPLOYER SPOTLIGHT

Yipiyap are an in person and online tutoring organisation who recruit young professionals (like you!) to support younger students in their academic studies. There is a full training programme and it is a paid role. Work experience AND an income? Winning!

You can read more about their careers here.

UNI SPOTLIGHT

"Choose Manchester and you'll put yourself ahead of the competition when the time comes to begin your career. With an award-winning careers service and courses built with your employability in mind, it's no surprise that 94% of our graduates go straight into jobs or further study."

You can read more about University of Manchester's courses here.

If you have any questions or need support, please email ajones@stjulies.org.uk